Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your No 7L 3037 St A 156-06-4 dated 29th October 1906 forwarding for enquiry and report a petition received from Katappa Naik, son of Dingal Naik, of the Chitaldrug Pollegar Family

After due enquiry, I have the honor to report the following facts to Government. Lingal Naik the Banawardan is an old man of about 75 years of age. He has only one son, the petitioner Katappa Naik. From a long time past Lingal Naik has been living himself separate from his son, his grand Children &c

He is living in the house of his Agent Timmalayya, paying him a certain Amount as rent

The old man Singal Naik is involved in debts. The loans were made to him by his Agent Sinnalayya on rather high rates of interest. The two notes given by Singal Naik to his Agent, mention that these sums were borrow on the security of his family. It is not possible to believe this statement as Singal Naik is living separately by himself and does not concern himself with the affairs of his son or his grand children.

From the conduct of the Agent Sinnalayya and from the answers he gave to my questions, I am inclined to believe that he exercises an undue influence over the old man and turns everything to his own benefit. It may be for the good of the old man perhaps, to send him of this Agent.

The monthly stipend of Singal Naik is Rs 101-10. out of this amount he gives his son the petitioner Ratnappa Naik Rs40/ every month. He gives his Agent Sinnalayya Rs 10/ being rent of his house and his fee as Agent. The income left is Rs 51-0-10. This sum Lingal Naik takes for himself: but out of this, he says he is paying his Agent Ivunnalayya a certain amount towards the liquidation of his loan. The amount of the loan with interest now outstanding against him is about Rs 300/-.

The petitioner Katappa Naik is about 38 years of age He has two sons by his deceased wife. He has no Children by his present wife.

Under these circumstances I had thought that it would be a reasonable arrangement for Lingal Naik to give his son an allowance of between 50 and 60 Rupees every month. The balance in my opinion would amply suffice to meet all the expenses of the old man and keep him in Comfort in his advanced age. But in the meantime the petitioner Katappa Naik and the Agent Ivunnalayya appeared before me in person yesterday, and ~ said ..... had settled them differences amicably with the help and advice of friends. I beg to be permitted the accompanying papers covering the arrangements they had agreed to. In this being so, all necessity for any interference is done away with and Government may allow them to abide by their agreement.

The petition of Katapipi and the address of the Chiefs is herewith returned.
